About the Centre

The Student Wellness Centre (SWC) is a counselling centre and one of the support systems within IIT Bombay that help students achieve their full potential. SWC focuses on the emotional, psychological and mental wellbeing of all UG, PG and PhD students of the Institute.

Essential Qualifications and Experience

- M Sc / MA in Psychology (Clinical Psychology / Counselling Psychology / Social Psychology) with a minimum of 55% marks or equivalent grade point average, from a recognised University / Institute.
- Student Counsellor: minimum 2 years of relevant experience after the qualifying degree, in an academic or medical institution.
- Senior Counsellor (4 positions): minimum 10 years of relevant experience after the qualifying degree, in an academic or medical institution.

Desirable Qualifications and Experience

- Experience of working with adolescents and young adults.
- Experience of working in a residential academic institution.
- Experience of handling crisis cases.
- Proficiency in one or more Indian languages in addition to English and/or Hindi.
- Strong organisational abilities and good verbal and written communication skills.

Job Profile

- Provide high-quality counselling services to all IIT Bombay students.
- Schedule appointments, interventions, follow-ups and referrals.
- Attend regular supervision with senior counsellors.
- Carry out any other responsibilities assigned by the Institute.

Remuneration

The pay scales below are for full-time engagement (40 hours per week). For part-time engagement (20 hours per week), the salary is exactly half.

Student Counsellors: consolidated monthly remuneration (inclusive of all allowances) of ₹70,000 to ₹1,00,000 for full-time, depending on experience, to be fixed by the selection committee. Part-time: ₹35,000 to ₹50,000 per month.

Senior Counsellors (4 positions, 10 or more years of experience): consolidated monthly remuneration of ₹1,40,000 to ₹1,60,000 for full-time, depending on experience, to be fixed by the selection committee. Part-time: ₹70,000 to ₹80,000 per month.

Nature and Duration of Appointment

- The position is ad hoc, with an initial appointment of 89 days.
- Engagement may be full-time (40 hours per week) or part-time (20 hours per week), as chosen by the applicant in the application.
- The position is based on a residential academic campus and may require flexible working hours and locations within campus, including duties during weekends and holidays.
- On satisfactory performance, the appointment may be extended to a long-term position.
- Selected candidates may join at any time between 15 October – 17 November 2026.

Hostel Accommodation

Single-room hostel accommodation is available on an optional basis for selected counsellors. The Institute plans to provide it to at least 10 counsellors, and candidates who want it should say so in the application.

Selection Process

- Shortlisting and interview by a selection committee constituted by the Institute.
- Interviews will be held in person at IIT Bombay and in online mode, the online mode being only for candidates residing outside Mumbai.
- The committee will take language and gender diversity into account, so that the 30 counsellors can serve students across the many languages of India.
- The committee may offer a lower or higher designation or remuneration, within the band above, depending on experience and performance in the interview.
